Army Institute of Management

The Army Institute of Management, Kolkata is one of the leading management schools in India. Established on 28th July, 1997 by the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES), New Delhi, the Institute is the first of its kind in India. It has, along with other vocational institutes under the aegis of the AWES, made quality management education available at affordable cost to the wards of Army personnel. Students from general category(20%) can also apply here.

Initially, AIMK was known as National Institute of Management Calcutta (NIMC). The Institute's current name was given on 11th Feb, 2005.

The Institute's MBA program is approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Institute is affiliated to Maulana Abul Kalam Azad University of Technology, West Bengal (MAKAUT) formerly known as West Bengal University of Technology (WBUT).

VISION

To become a premier business school recognized internationally for professional excellence in management education.

MISSION

- Promote excellence in all dimensions of management.
- Empower students by offering practical, innovative and technology-driven management programs.
- Prepare management professionals with a global mindset.
- Focus on building intellectual capital and foster an interactive learning environment through faculty development, interaction with industry, research and publications.

Message From Director

Army Institute of Management (AIM) Kolkata is a unique and unparalleled educational Institution committed to craft an ambience for nurturing innovation, creativity and excellence in our students. “Growth with Education” is the common understanding amongst the fraternity of AIM. Personalized attention given to the students by each faculty member, coupled with the knowledge, experience and skills that they share with the students, help transform them to professionals and bring them to a threshold from where they can achieve anything in their life they aspire to.
