Army Institute of Management

The Army Institute of Management, Kolkata is one of the leading management schools in India. Established on 28th July, 1997 by the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES), New Delhi, the Institute is the first of its kind in India. It has, along with other vocational institutes under the aegis of the AWES, made quality management education available at affordable cost to the wards of Army personnel. Students from general category(20%) can also apply here.

Initially, AIMK was known as National Institute of Management Calcutta (NIMC). The Institute's current name was given on 11th Feb, 2005.

The Institute's MBA program is approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Institute is affiliated to Maulana Abul Kalam Azad University of Technology, West Bengal (MAKAUT) formerly known as West Bengal University of Technology (WBUT).

VISION

To become a premier business school recognized internationally for professional excellence in management education.

MISSION

- Promote excellence in all dimensions of management.
- Empower students by offering practical, innovative and technology-driven management programs.
- Prepare management professionals with a global mindset.
- Focus on building intellectual capital and foster an interactive learning environment through faculty development, interaction with industry, research and publications.

Message From Director

Army Institute of Management (AIM) Kolkata is a unique and unparalleled educational Institution committed to craft an ambience for nurturing innovation, creativity and excellence in our students. "Growth with Education" is the common understanding amongst the fraternity of AIM. Personalized attention given to the students by each faculty member, coupled with the knowledge, experience and skills that they share with the students, help transform them to professionals and bring them to a threshold from where they can achieve anything in their life they aspire to.

NOSTALGIA-2K16

An alumni meet was conducted by AIM , Kolkata on 17th Sept, 2016. The focus was to encourage the existing students to interact with the alumni and also organise a cultural event for them. It included students of AIM, Kolkata participating and making the event successful. The emphasises was on making all the students of the AIMK feel like a family. Alumni from MBA-1 to MBA –18 had all gathered at the institute to share their experiences and learning with the current MBA pursuing batches. A cultural program by MBA 20 was conducted that included singing, dancing, games on an interactive forum. The cultural program was followed by our traditional walk session cum interactive session with the seniors and a much awaited DJ night and sumptuous dinner. Pullovers, mementos, were given out to the alumni. The name of the event was rightly chosen as ‘NOSTALGIA’ as the alumni went down their memory lane and revisited their good old days.

IIM VISIT

Our students were taken for a visit to the Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta on 5th Nov, 2016 for a better understanding of the working and education system followed by one of the most prestigious institutes of India. It turned out to be an amazing learning experience for our students as they were given a campus tour of the institution. The students also had an interactive session with Mr. Alok Guin, PRO IIMC who shared his valuable knowledge and experiences with our students that benefited them much. The infrastructure, library, auditorium, sports ground, lake view hostels captivated the eyes of the students. Our professors who visited the IIMC campus along with the students were highly impressed by their quality of education, way of teaching and were influenced to imbibe the same in our institution. Since the placement season is on the students also got to experience their manner of conducting placement related activities. Such learning and grooming activities are usually conducted in our institution every now and then.
