Army Institute of Management

IN THIS ISSUE

The Army Institute of Management, Kolkata is one of the leading management schools in India. Established on 28th July, 1997 by the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES), New Delhi, the Institute is the first of its kind in India. It has, along with other vocational institutes under the aegis of the AWES, made quality management education available at affordable cost to the wards of Army personnel. Students from general category(20%) can also apply here.

Initially, AIMK was known as National Institute of Management Calcutta (NIMC). The Institute's current name was given on 11th Feb, 2005.

The Institute's MBA program is approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Institute is affiliated to Maulana Abul Kalam Azad University of Technology, West Bengal (MAKAUT) formerly known as West Bengal University of Technology (WBUT).

VISION

To become a premier business school recognized internationally for professional excellence in management education.

MISSION

- Promote excellence in all dimensions of management.
- Empower students by offering practical, innovative and technology-driven management programs.
- Prepare management professionals with a global mindset.
- Focus on building intellectual capital and foster an interactive learning environment through faculty development, interaction with industry, research and publications.

THIS IS A FAREWELL, NOT A GOODBYE

Every beginning has an end. And every end is a new beginning. College days are the best period in student's life, and sadly this period has ended for MBA Batch -21 students, but for a new start and new career.

On 26th May 2019, the junior students from MBA Batch – 22, of Army Institute of Management, Kolkata organized a farewell party for their seniors. The program began with the scribbling session in the morning. In the scribbling ceremony, the senior batch mates came in white shirts and scribbled on each other's shirts, wrote their emotions, wishes and messages. It's rightly said, "The ink on the shirt might fade, but the words and its meaning and more than anything else - the writers of those words shall be cherished".

In the evening event, there was a Bollywood theme party, wherein senior came in wearing beautiful and elegant attires. The evening program began with the juniors' performances. The juniors enthusiastically performed dances and farewell songs for the seniors; they sang the good bye songs which again created an ambiance full of emotions. And later the program was followed with the tag and title distribution, along with video presentation which reminded them of their two years of journey in this college.

The event ended with DJ Night, wherein all the juniors and seniors came together, danced and
