Army Institute of Management

The Army Institute of Management, Kolkata is one of the leading management schools in India. Established on 28th July, 1997 by the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES), New Delhi, the Institute is the first of its kind in India. It has, along with other vocational institutes under the aegis of the AWES, made quality management education available at affordable cost to the wards of Army personnel. Students from general category(20%) can also apply here.

Initially, AIMK was known as National Institute of Management Calcutta (NIMC). The Institute's current name was given on 11th Feb, 2005.

The Institute's MBA program is approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Institute is affiliated to Maulana Abul Kalam Azad University of Technology, West Bengal (MAKAUT) formerly known as West Bengal University of Technology (WBUT).

VISION

To become a premier business school recognized internationally for professional excellence in management education.

MISSION

- Promote excellence in all dimensions of management.
- Empower students by offering practical, innovative and technology-driven management programs.
- Prepare management professionals with a global mindset.
- Focus on building intellectual capital and foster an interactive learning environment through faculty development, interaction with industry, research and publications.

Message From Director

Army Institute of Management (AIM) Kolkata is a unique and unparalleled educational Institution committed to craft an ambience for nurturing innovation, creativity and excellence in our students. "Growth with Education" is the common understanding amongst the fraternity of AIM. Personalized attention given to the students by each faculty member, coupled with the knowledge, experience and skills that they share with the students, help transform them to professionals and bring them to a threshold from where they can achieve anything in their life they aspire to.

ACTIVITIES IN COLLEGE

Dristikon-2017

Dristikon-2017 is a panel discussion on Union & Rail Budget in 2017. Dristikon which literally means the point of view or prospective on an individual or an organization or a market segment. Thus Dristikon is all about to discuss the various viewpoints of the after effects of the 2017 Union Budget. To conduct the event there was 4 industrial spokespersons as well as from academia.

Management Development Program

A “Soft Skills Training Programme” was held during 10-11 Feb 2017 for Redington India Ltd, a leading Supply Chain Solution Provider. There were 27 participants who took part in nine sessions spread across two days. Eminent corporate trainers including AIMK faculty members conducted the sessions. This is the second such programme organized for RIL in last one year.

Joy of Giving

It's time to celebrate the festival of giving! Daan Utsav (Joy of Giving Week) celebrated in India is a time of generosity, unity and above all happiness. Across socio-economic strata and cultural heritage, Indians all over the country give, and give whole heartedly to their family, friends, employees and fellow citizens.

Union Budget - Tax, Law and Business

The institute had organised a Guest Lecture on Tax, law and business – union budget on 28th February 2017. Lecture given by Justice Soumitra Pal and Mr. Harsh Poddar. During this an effort was made to show students the importance of tax and law in over life and how excise tax helped in freedom struggle . The batch of AIMK MBA20 actively interacted in the session and the programme was successful. The lecture was of great benefit to the students.

IIMC

Students represented from our college in an event which took place in IIMC. There were four different guest speakers and their four different panels for them. Each panel consisted 8 members from different colleges of Kolkata. It was a great experience for the students.
