

The Army Institute of Management, Kolkata is one of the leading management schools in India. Established on 28th July, 1997 by the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES), New Delhi, the Institute is the first of its kind in India. It has, along with other vocational institutes under the aegis of the AWES, made quality management education available at affordable cost to the wards of Army personnel. Students from general category(20%) can also apply here.

Initially, AIMK was known as National Institute of Management Calcutta (NIMC). The Institute's current name was given on 11th Feb, 2005.

The Institute's MBA program is approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Institute is affiliated to Maulana Abul Kalam Azad University of Technology, West Bengal (MAKAUT) formerly known as West Bengal University of Technology (WBUT).

VISION

Personality Development Program

By Col. Vijay Kumar Dhawan

The institute organized a Personality Development Program which was conducted by Col. Vijay Dhawan on 22nd of May, '17.

The mantra of the program was to inculcate in students 'The 7 habits of Highly Effective People'. The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People is a widely acclaimed book, written by Stephen R. Covey, a writer as well as a motivational speaker.

The speaker went on to show videos which strengthened the ideas and showed ways how to implement them.

The event was highly knowledgeable and highly motivating. If followed any person would achieve great heights.

Farewell

An event to say goodbye to all the seniors and tell them that we will miss them. The event started with scribbling where all the seniors wrote messages on each other's institute shirt and than all the seniors came dressed according to the theme. Titles were given to the seniors by juniors and the event end with DJ to make their last few days in college memorable.
